As you speak into the microphone, the computer will catalog your words into musical notes and patterns. Your print-out will reflect the twelve notes of the musical scale - C, C#, D, D#, E, F, F#, G, G#, A, A# and B; plus the octave(s) in which you speak. The notes, octaves and general architecture of your vocal graph are used to create a computerized nanoVoice Personality Profile interpretation for you.

Each of these notes has general characteristics which are explained in the chart below. The database used for your analysis has been developed over the last twenty-plus years as we collected data. We would appreciate feedback as to how you think your profile matches the REAL you.

For this particular type of vocal profiling, your emotions can greatly influence the interpretation. If you would like information about a variety of subjects, take several voice samples; keeping with one subject for each voice sample. Every print-out will be "flavored" by the subject you talk about.

Remember that each written report will reflect what you say as well as what you don't say.

Sometimes you will find conflicting statements on a report. This indicates that these same conflicts reside within your own personality. As you talk about different subjects you will be able to determine the conflicts and joys of each subject.

If you doubt the accuracy of your nanoVoice Personality Profile, ask a friend who will tell you the truth about how you are perceived by others.

Multiple colors on one chart indicate a multi-faceted approach to that subject.

Blue is indicative of an overall love for humanity, the ability to put others first, an emotional perspective and possible naiveté. A nun or minister type. The negative aspect of Blue includes someone totally self absorbed who can't think of others; only concentrating on self first.

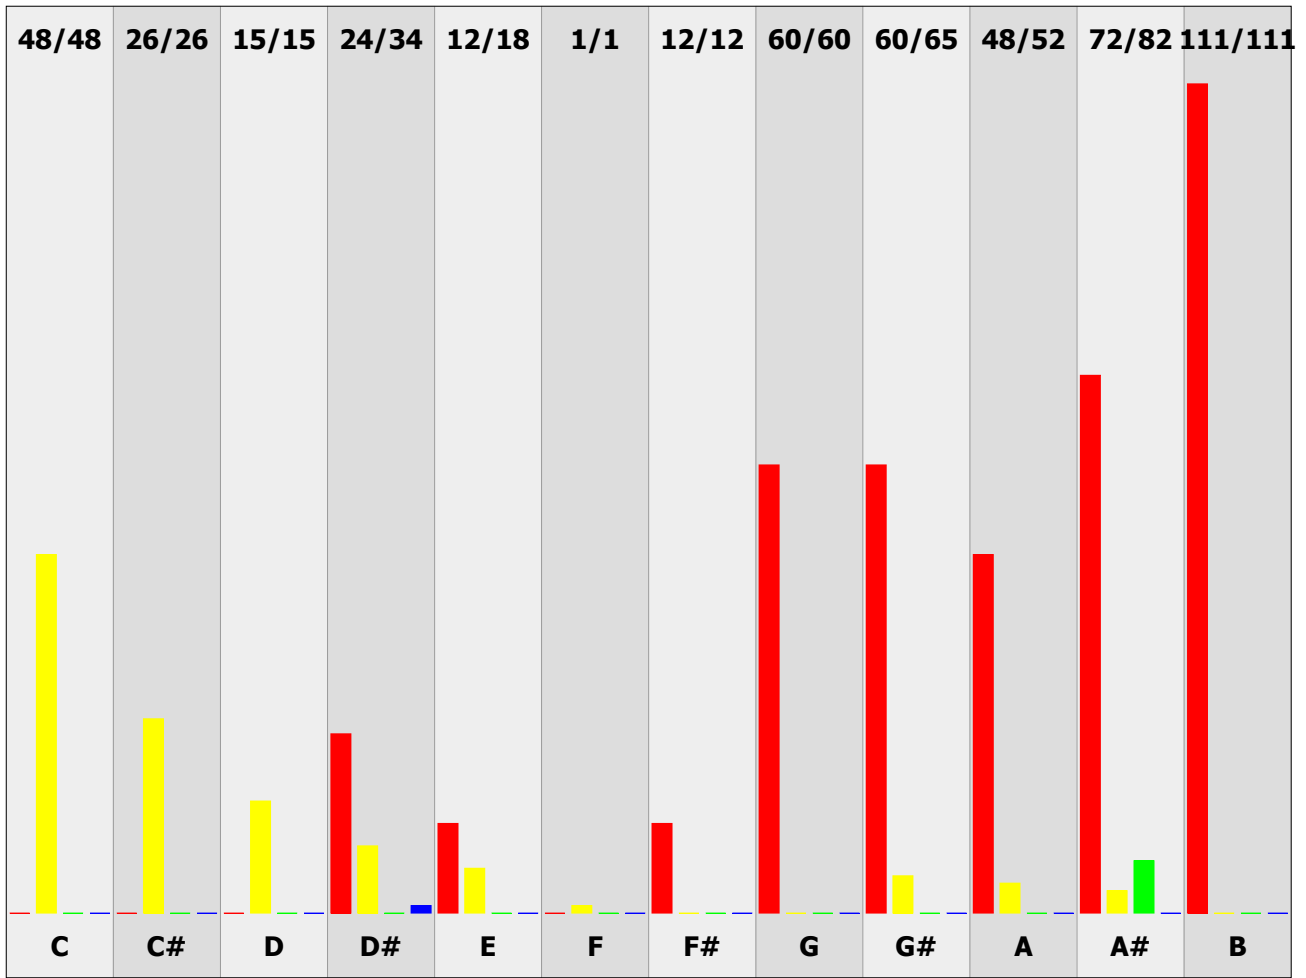

Green indicates a need to accomplish, someone who can plan ahead, who is reliable and ready to go after careful thought. A Farmer type. The negative aspect of Green includes a con artist who works carefully and diligently to pull off a long term scam.

Yellow is indicative of mental processing, an intellectual outlook, a logical, cautious perspective. A lawyer type. The negative aspects of Yellow includes someone who attempts to use facts to intimidate, over-power, or control others using “facts” - true or not - to support their position.

Red is indicative of a physical call to action but without a lot of thought for the consequences of the action. Red likes to see and do things first before the rest of the crowd. A Fireman type. The negative aspects of Red includes someone who speaks/acts without thinking; often being offensive or insulting.

Each note needs to be matched with a color and its interpretation.

For example, someone could have a very high note of C that was red – this person might use his/her ego or strength to get their way without much thought for the outcome. At the extreme, a bully or autocrat.

Points of Importance, Attention and Consequence

You have high ideals and expect the same of others. You think that feeding the mind is just as important as feeding the body. You are aware of how painful thoughtless words can be. You can be fussy about your physical space. It needs to satisfy you and no one else. Sometimes you spend a lot of energy trying to get even the smallest detail right the first time.

Your highest note is associated with service to humanity and human spirit. Your feelings and desire to help others resides with this note. Your highest note is associated with your internal perspective of service to self vs. humanitarian needs. The spirit of your inner core resides with your ability to take quiet time for yourself. Your highest note is associated with the expression of physically prioritizing. Personal control over what happens in your physical environment resides with this note.

Thinking about an action is not the same as doing it, so go ahead and send that little gift, card or note. The right words at the right time can sometimes elude you because of all of the internal dialogue. Ideas come to you in very odd moments when you are distracted by a required task.

Points of Communication, Complications and Complaints

You sometimes help others to the detriment of yourself. Your emotions run strong and can influence your health. You actively seek to bring spirit into your interactions with others. It is particularly bothersome when people use or borrow your property without permission.

You know how to get things done but don't always have the time to deal with the details. You can easily be distracted from carrying out your plans by a more exciting prospect. You can be very hard on yourself - taking blame or responsibility needlessly.
